

Cheater Beans

Ingredients:

2 -28oz cans of baked beans (I prefer Bush Beans, original or Maple flavored)

¾ cup brown granulated sugar (you can use regular brown sugar if you wish)

¾ cup Molasses (Use the full flavored not the lite versions)

4 oz. chopped cooked bacon

2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce

1 Tablespoon A-1 steak sauce

1/3 cup chopped white or yellow onions

Directions:

Optional: For additional zing you can add horseradish, Pepperoncini juice, or mustard.

Drain the sauce from the beans, rinse under water and place in a Pyrex baking dish. Add the brown granulated sugar, bacon, Worcestershire, A-1, and onions. Mix well.

If you like a little zip in your baked beans use one of the options listed above, personally I like the juice from Pepperoncini peppers (Mezzetta brand is my favorite).

Bake at 275 degrees for 2-3 hours.

Note: I put three to four strips of cooked bacon on the top of the beans for the last 1-1/2 hours.
